An unusually beautiful dinner, the culmination of many interesting pre-nuptial affairs, was that given by Mr. and

Mrs. James Henry Marshall last evening at their home on West Fourteenth street, in honor of Mrs. Marshall's daughter, Miss Winifred McGlassen and Mr. Charles Kinchen Williamson of Hamblin, Mo., whose marriage takes place this evening. The colors predominating were two shades of rose. Across the table were stretched shaded strips of pink satin ribbon with here and there winged cupid who formed a charming setting for the centerpiece—a large Japanese bird bowl filled with shimmering pink roses. At each place stood alternately pink baskets and white wedding bells as favors, the place cards being also in the form of wedding bells. The chandelier immediately over the table was lined with pink and heavily festooned with smilax tied with a bow of rose tulle. The guests who included the members of the bridal party and the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall for the wedding were: Miss Margaret Colvard, Miss Caroline Colvard, Miss Myra Wilson, Miss Vivian Cooter, Miss Edith Miller and Miss McGlassen, and Mr. Robert N. Clayton of Hamblin, Mo., Mr. Reed McGlassen, Mr. Allen Brooks, Mr. Charles Vollers, John Fleischman and Mr. Williamson. The dinner was followed by the wedding rehearsal.

Mrs. E. T. Hathaway of Houston, who has been the recipient of many informal social courtesies during her visit here this week, was the guest of honor at a charming luncheon given today by Mrs. W. C. Burke. The decorations of the table were carried out in pink with a large pink basket filled with pink carnations, forming the centerpiece surrounded by smaller baskets. Cards followed the luncheon when Mrs. Hathaway was presented with a beautiful porch basket. The guests were Mrs. G. K. Williams, Mrs. Horace Wilson, Mrs. Robert Walker, Mrs. W. E. Taylor, Mrs. M. L. Turner, Mrs. George Spencer and Mrs. Hathaway who leaves tomorrow for her home in Houston.

Miss Evaline Atwood entertained the following guests in her box at the races this afternoon: Miss Laura Graves, Miss Pauline Stafford, Mrs. James E. Sharpe and Mrs. Weston Atwood.

Miss Pauline Stafford and Miss Evaline Atwood will go to Norman tonight to attend the dance given at the K. A. house this evening. While in Norman Miss Stafford will be a guest of Miss Atwood at the Kappa Alpha Theta house.

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon dance which was to have been given last night at the chapter house in Norman was postponed until this evening.

Miss Lucile Westervelt is up from Norman for the week-end.

STOP! CALOMEL IS QUICKSILVER

It's Mercury! Attacks the bones, sates and makes you sick.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when 50 cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can not sate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tonic, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tonic instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tonic acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you. Adv.

We're Waiting For Your Menu

During the first week a score of women submitted menus for the Times Better Menu Contest.

We want fifty menus next week. Every woman in Oklahoma should be interested in knowing what her neighbor thinks is the best menu she can serve.

Our idea is to please women readers by giving them something that will aid them in their homes. In judging the winners of this contest, the menus will be considered by a cooking expert for palatableness, food value and economy.

A prize of $5 will be awarded for the best menu for a day's meals for two, three, four, five, six, seven and eight people. One menu will be published daily in the Times. For every menu submitted that is considered good enough to publish, 50 cents will be given the writer.

Send in your menu to the Better Menu Contest Editor of the Times and remember to write on only one side of the paper.

I have not itemized the cost of material, but it is all inexpensive and nourishing. There are three in our family, and my grocery bills average about $5 a week.

The roast for Sunday dinner will last for Monday's lunch and dinner, and the chocolate cake will serve us four meals. I lay in a supply of groceries when there are sales, and never buy one package or can of anything for 15 cents when two are given for 25 cents. I always buy the very best grades of canned goods, but do not use expensive cuts of steaks. Flank steak is excellent and there is no waste. Round steak I grind in food chopper and make into meat balls, meat loaf or cream gravy.—Mrs. O. K. Coker, 1008 East Seventh street.

The three dimensions of the Skirvin are:—

The Breadth of its policies in seeking high efficiency at a minimum of cost.

The THEATRES

Empress.
Lou Tellegen, the famous romantic actor and husband of Geraldine Farrar, appears in "The Victory of Conscience" at the Empress theater Sunday and Monday. This is Tellegen's first play since his marriage. It is a stirring love-drama feature running the entire gamut of human emotions and terminating in the spiritual victory of a man and a maid. Cleo Ridgely and Elliott Dexter appear in the supporting cast. Charles Murray and Louisa Fazenda complete the bill in a Keystone "The Feathered Nest" tonight. Sessie Hayakawa in "The Honorable Friend."

Liberty.
"The Aviator" will be the offering for four days beginning Sunday matinee of Jimmie Rodgers and Joan Tenney and their company of thirty artists at the Liberty theater. The bill is one of the prime favorites of their repertoire and will be the most luscious. Jimmie Rodgers proves his versatility by essaying a blackface role. Joan Tenney will be on hand with a magnificent display of gores as will the twenty other pretty girls in the company. Four shows, Sunday—two matinees, at 2:30 and 4:30.

Folly.
Together with the Favorite Sextet which now has become an established feature of Folly programs, the eight-red photography program brings here Sunday what the highest authority on motion pictures has seen fit to term a "100 percent" feature, photography. It is "The Potted Flower," with an all-star cast including Rose Coghlan, Marguerite Snow, Edward Mackay and Arthur Donaldson. The picture is superb in every respect. It is dramatized in six parts.

Mailestic.
"The Girl From Frisco," wonderful adventure story, is showing today with a variety program. Tomorrow "The Broken Spur," western drama, and excellent short subjects.

Lyric.
Sunday an all-new cast of vaudeville performers will smile on over the footlights at the Lyric, presenting acts which have up until Lyric engagement, played in the larger theaters of the east. It is announced that there will be comedy, novelty, music, singing, dancing and clownery, all matched up in a way that is enjoyable. One of the acts in particular is said to have had a "run" of fifteen weeks in a single house in New York recently. (On the screen Monday and Tuesday, "The Girl From Frisco.")

Services Held for Vreeland.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—Funeral services for the late Rear Admiral Charles E. Vreeland, U. S. N., retired, were held here today. Interment with full military honors followed at Arlington National cemetery. Admiral Vreeland died at Atlantic City Wednesday.
